Speakers and Topics

Tom Pennington

Tom has served as pastor-teacher of Countryside Bible Church in Dallas, Texas, for nine years. Prior to this, Tom served for 16 years at Grace Community Church in various roles, including as personal assistant to John MacArthur, and has also taught as an adjunct professor at The Master's Seminary.

- The greatest danger in ministry
- Living by the compass, not the clock
- God's sovereignty over our ministries
- Isaiah 53, Solus Christus
- The certainty of truth in a postmodern world

Tedd Tripp

Tedd is a pastor and the author of Shepherding a Child's Heart, one of the most popular Christian books of our era on the subject of parenting.

Tedd is known world-wide for his excellent material on raising and shepherding children.

- Child raising: ages 0-5, 6-12, teens
- Helping kids have a vision for God's glory
- What is the family?
- A call to formative instruction

Joel James

Joel has pastored Grace Fellowship, Pretoria, for seventeen years.

He lectures at Grace School of Ministry in the areas of expository preaching and biblical counselling and is the author of Taste and See That the Lord is Good, a study on the attributes of God.

- The glory of Christ in the incarnation
- Preaching Christ from the OT
- Counselling marriage conflict
- So what?: Making sermons applicable
